

Check Funeral Home Records

Tips for Step 16 - Check Funeral Home Records

Here are ten websites where you can search for funeral home records to aid in your genealogy research:

1. Ancestry.com - Ancestry offers access to a variety of funeral home records through their website, including obituaries, funeral home directories, and more.
2. FamilySearch.org - FamilySearch offers a collection of funeral home records, including obituaries and other information about the deceased and their families.
3. FindAGrave.com - FindAGrave offers a searchable database of cemetery records, which can include information about the funeral home that conducted the burial.
4. FuneralNet.com - FuneralNet offers access to obituaries and other funeral home records through their website.
5. Legacy.com - Legacy offers a searchable database of obituaries, which may include information about the funeral home that conducted the funeral.
6. ObitsArchive.com - ObitsArchive offers access to a large collection of obituaries and other funeral home records.
7. FuneralOne.com - FuneralOne provides funeral home software and services, and also offers access to obituaries and other funeral home records through their website.
8. Tributes.com - Tributes offers a searchable database of obituaries and other funeral home records.
9. GenealogyBank.com - GenealogyBank offers a collection of obituaries and other funeral home records, which can be searched by name, location, and other criteria.
10. ObituariesHelp.org - ObituariesHelp provides information and resources for finding and interpreting obituaries and other funeral home records.

Remember, not all funeral home records may be available online, so be sure to also check with local funeral homes and historical societies in the area where your ancestors lived.

Quiz for 'Step 16'

1. Which of the following websites offers access to funeral home records?

- A) Amazon.com
- B) Ancestry.com
- C) Wikipedia.org
- D) Facebook.com

2. What type of information might be found in funeral home records?

- A) Birth certificates
- B) Marriage licenses
- C) Obituaries
- D) Passport applications

3. How might funeral home records be helpful in genealogy research?

- A) They can provide information about the deceased and their family.
- B) They can provide information about the funeral home and its history.
- C) They can provide information about the funeral industry in general.
- D) They are not helpful in genealogy research.

4. Which of the following might be a reason why not all funeral home records are available online?

- A) Funeral homes do not keep records.
- B) Funeral home records are too difficult to digitize.
- C) Privacy laws restrict access to funeral home records.
- D) None of the above.

5. What is a good way to access funeral home records that are not available online?

- A) Contact local funeral homes and historical societies.
- B) Search for them on social media.
- C) Ask family members if they have any records.
- D) None of the above.

Answers: Quiz for 'Step 16

1.B) Ancestry.com

2.C) Obituaries

3.A) They can provide information about the deceased and their family.

4.C) Privacy laws restrict access to funeral home records.

5.A) Contact local funeral homes and historical societies.