Tips for Step 18

'Step 18 - Go to locations where your ancestors came from'

1. Do your research: Before you visit a location, do some research on the area to get an idea of what to expect. Look up historical records, maps, and photographs to familiarize yourself with the area.
2. Plan your itinerary: Make a list of places you want to visit, such as local libraries, town halls, cemeteries, churches, and historical sites. Plan your route in advance to make the most of your time.
3. Talk to the locals: Strike up conversations with local residents and historians to gather information and insights about the area. They may have valuable information about your ancestors that you wouldn't be able to find elsewhere.
4. Take photos and videos: Take plenty of photos and videos to document your trip and capture the places where your ancestors lived. This will help you to remember the trip and also serve as valuable records for future research.
5. Be respectful: Be respectful of the people and places you visit. Some places, such as cemeteries, may require a certain level of decorum. Remember that you are a guest in the town and treat it with respect.
6. Be flexible: Don't be afraid to deviate from your itinerary and explore new areas. You never know what you might discover.
7. Have fun: Finally, enjoy yourself! This is an exciting opportunity to connect with your family's past and learn more about your heritage. Embrace the experience and savour every moment.
